

Consulate General of France in Bangalore

Disclaimer

- I am aware that an incomplete application (including substandard photos) increases the risk of refusal of my visa application with The Consulate General of France, Bangalore.
- I am also aware that the processing time of my short stay visa application with the Consulate General of France in Bangalore is 2 working days starting from reception of the complete application at the French Consulate in the visa section.
- The Consulate General of France, Bangalore may request additional information or documents in order to process my visa application and may call visa applicant for an interview; if so, processing time may be increased: 7 days to 10 days.
- The process for the student visa application can take up to one month: I understand that there is no reason to call or send any emails before this month-delay is passed.
- I understand that any enquiry asking for preferential treatment within the normal processing time will not be answered unless serious humanitarian reasons are produced.
- Payment of fees does not give the right to automatically obtain a visa. Fees are not refundable in case of refusal or cancellation of the visa application.
- Granting or refusal of a visa is entirely at the discretion of the Consular Mission.

Applicants Signature –

Bangalore -

Date -